TIME TO GET SERIOUS ABOUT CLIMATE CHANGE

Has there ever been such a massive gap between science and government policy?

The next 12 years will be crucial as to whether we stand any chance of preventing the world from tipping in to ever more dangerous levels of global warming.

What kind of Industrial Strategy will be needed to get us to net zero carbon?

A panel including Chi Onwurah, Labour Shadow Minister for Industrial Strategy, Science and Innovation, Sampson Low, Head of Policy, UNISON and Philip Pearson, GJA, will be presenting their ideas and responding to your comments and questions.

Chair: Rachel Drayson, National Union of Students
